MARDI GRAS PRIZES PUBLISHED SO ALL MAY ENTER CONTEST

With the Wittenberg Warehouse company busy moving lumber and pipe for the platform and airline to the big piece of granite this morning, things are commencing to take on activity for the big drilling contest which will take place on the mornings of July 4th and July 5th in front of the Nevada First National Bank.

Entries are rolling into Chairman Harry R. Grier. The following were received this morning from Goldfield: Mark Leitch, of the Spearhead, and T. M. Spencer and Bert Carley, of the Reorganized Cracker Jack Mining company.

Mark Page, of Manhattan, say at least six from Manhattan will take part in the contest.

Salvatore and Malone continue to draw big crowds each afternoon at the training headquarters and both boys are fast approaching the finest condition possible.

Betting has been quite brisk on this account, with both boys at even money.

A. H. Keenan in charge of the big Mardi Gras parade on the night of July 4, announces that the committee will not import any costumes this year.

RELIEF BENEFIT DRAWS A CROWD

The benefit for the Women's Relief Corps staged last night at the Airdome, was one of the best amateur affairs presented in Tonopah. The players and singers had practiced sedulously for over two weeks and were better perfect in their parts going into the characters with a swing and zest that gave the impression that the program was in the hands of professionals. Several performers failed to show up at the last minute but their absence was not felt as the performance was so well balanced that it carried itself through with volleys of applause at almost every turn. Mrs. Lenore Solender Hanby was in fine voice and her acting and rendition was beyond criticism. Miss Agnes Ennis, sister of the manager and promoter of the entertainment, was a bright particular star who won plenty of applause in her part. The house should be filled this evening, since there is an entire change of program opening with the three act comedy of "The Gamblers" and winding up with one hour of solid fun. Last evening Gail Hawkesworth, the well known society dancer, appeared in a "Nymph" dance and was very graciously received. Miss Hawkesworth is the best known society dancer in America today and for the past two years has appeared at the most exclusive hotels in California, her winter season being spent with the Pasadena hotels, the Virginia at Long Beach and the Coronado. One the first of October she returns to New York to star with her own company on the Orpheum circuit.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

The feature at the Butler this evening is the celebrated emotional actress, Pauline Frederick, in a thrilling romance of the Spanish Main, "The Slave Market," by Frederick Arnold Kummer, who is one of the best known writers of the day. Miss Frederick could not be more ideally cast than in the role of the proud Spanish beauty. The picture abounds in picturesque settings and in the thrills of romantic glamor which come with a good pirate tale. The love of adventure is in us and this is a thrilling tale of adventure, set in the most picturesque of backgrounds, making a photoplay that will be interesting to all.

Tomorrow, the incomparable Theda Bara, in the latest William Fox special de luxe photodrama, "Her Greatest Love," a story of a girl's love sacrificed for a mother's ambition. Senator and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew, who are spending the winter months at St. Augustine, Fla., were interested spectators during the filming of several scenes in the gardens of the Ponce de Leon hotel, in which the world-famed Theda Bara was the central figure.

Friday, the most wonderful picture of its kind ever filmed, "Hell Morgan's Girl," a story of San Francisco's Barbary coast at the time of the big earthquake.

LIBERTY THEATRE

Today: Douglas Fairbanks in "Double Trouble" will be repeated today. A. D. W. Griffith production. If you wish to see Douglas Fairbanks at his best do not fail to see him in this picture, as it is considered the greatest feature he has ever put out. "Patria," No. 15, the last episode, which is the most exciting of the entire serial. Owing to the fact that we have made arrangements to close on Thursday we booked this last episode for today.

Wednesday and Thursday: Duke R. Lee's big new road show, featuring the Gladstone Sisters and Charles Fessia, in singing, dancing, acrobatics, musical and novelty acts. This show appeared at the Liberty on June 11 and 12 and owing to their great popularity we have booked them for this return date. This company combines beauty, harmony, novelty acts, latest music, nifty dancing, classy acrobatics, clean comedy and up to the minute songs.

Wednesday's picture, "The Mysterious Mrs. M." featuring Mary MacLaren and Harrison Ford, a Bluebird production.

CITY IS DISTRICTED BY THE RED CROSS

The ladies' Liberty Loan committee, augmented by a large number of new members, met yesterday afternoon at Elks Hall. Mrs. Balliet, the secretary, being absent, Mrs. Lloyd Horton acted in her place. The committee was called to order by the chairman, Mrs. Grigsby, immediately following which the committee reorganized as the Women's Auxiliary. The purpose of the new organization is to take up any work of a patriotic nature that it may deem expedient or necessary.

R. J. Highland, chairman of the Red Cross, then addressed the meeting and asked the Women's Auxiliary to co-operate with the Red Cross for the next week weeks in its task of raising the funds needed immediately by that organization. This the Women's Auxiliary agreed to do.

The chairman then appointed a number of women as captains, each with a squad of ten helpers. Each squad captain will report the activities of her branch directly to the chairman, thus simplifying the handling of such a large organization of active workers. The collection of Funds for the Red Cross will begin within the next few days.
